Rotary's 23rd Annual Youth Awards Banquet was another smashing success. The recipients were excited and well deserving of their honors and accolades. This years group of students were outstanding. Special thanks to Herb Jones who chaired this event. This years honorees included: Mike

Foster - Booker High School VPA; Chris Goldstein - Health Care Careers Club; Matt Leicht - Riverview High School Dual Enrollment; Jennifer Carlson - Riverview High School; Kaylyn Jordan-Campbell - PAL Sailor Circus; Nate Satrape - Sarasota High School JROTC; Tara Blackburn- Honightaling

- Sarasota Military Academy; Nacole Robinson - SCTI Health Science; D'Angela Dixon - Westcoast School and Laurabeth Goldsmith - Girl Scouts. These students have faced some of life's tough challenges and have managed to land on their feet. They represent our next generation of leaders.

Service Above Self

Members Corner: Tony I.

Another outstanding Youth Award's Dinner. The 10 young people who received the award were all deserving. It was a great night in the large room of the University club. The weather and the view really made the evening. Police Chief Abbot was the perfect M.C. This was our first buffet at the club and they did a great job. The Service could not have been better. Thanks to Herb Jones for undertaking this program.

The Annual Juvenile Diabetes Walk last Saturday was attended by over 2000 people. The weather was perfect and The Sarasota keys Rotary club was represented. We do not have the amount of our donation yet. Please let Bob Zimmer know the amount you collected for the walk. I only know my grandson collected $100. Thanks to a donation from Barbara and Dan Naiven and Bev Michelson. There were many more people from our club who donated funds for this event. Thanks for your support of Rotary and a cure for Juvenile Diabetes.

Speaking of Bev, he arrived at 7:00 AM and stayed until all the walkers were served bagels, waffles and eggs. My Grandson assured me he walked the 5 miles, He said if I wanted proof all I would have to do is check the wall at the end of the beach and I will see where he left his socks. We are still taking donations. If you have money collected and not turned it in see Bob Zimmer

Bob Zimmer and I interviewed 4 juniors at the Westcoast School (SMA Interact club did not submit any names.) All the candidate were outstanding but we can only send one and possibly an alternate if an opening is available. Our foundation did approve funding for students. The choice was difficult but we picked two students who we felt would get the most out of the program

Lunch today is beef stew over pastadessert Apple pie ala mode
