On last week the Sarasota Keys Rotary Club and the St. Andrews Pipes & Drums of Tampa Bay presented the official uniform and school tartan to the Sarasota Military Academy Pipe Band. The band has been presented with a Proclamation from the City of Sarasota, recognizing it as the official representative of the Sarasota

-Dunfermline Sister City Program.

The Tartan designed in Fife, Scotland is the official Tartan for the Sarasota-Dunfermline Sister City Program. Through donations and assistance from the Rotary Club & the St. Andrews Pipe Band the Sarasota Military Academy Pipe Band will now be in full uniform.

“The St. Andrews Pipes & Drums of Tampa Bay was formed 40 years ago. It is made up of pipers and drummers from all across the United States and Canada. They along with our Rotary Club are assisting the Sarasota Military Academy Pipes & Drums with the needed equipment to complete its Military Bagpipe Marching Band.

Rotary member and President-Elect, Bill Buckley, also President of the Band along with The Sarasota Military Academy Pipes Drums under the direction of Mr. Roddy MacDonald did a wonderful performance of “Amazing Grace.”

Members Corner: Tony I.

Wasn't last weeks program great? You had to get chills when you heard the bag pipes playing. Bill Buckley and his crew did a great job putting it together. Our donation of the kilts was a worthwhile project for our club.

The Interact Club did their car wash Sunday, April 13, 2008 and worked hard not only washing cars but collecting cash curbside. I hope many of you were there to contribute their success. Their goal was to raise $300.

They raised $620. and the money goes to The Relay for Life walk on the 18th of April. It's an all night walk. There will be about one thousand people walking to raise money for Cancer research.

The opening night ceremony will kick off at 6 PM. The SMA color guard will open the ceremony at 9 PM there will be a Luminaria Ceremony, the SMA bag pipe band will be there. They will take turns walking and sleep in sleeping bags in the tent our club donated. They would like as many Rotarians as possible to Join in the ceremonies. It was good see Joan Goldstein at our last meeting. She misses the club but her Job in St Pete keeps her from coming to the meetings. Arnold Fein has been pretty busy lately. He sold his condo on Longboat Key and is moving to the Sarasota Bay Club. Good luck Arnold and Shirley in your new home.

Tony I.
